

Application for Khalsa Ladies Camp Scholarship /Trade 2006

We keep the fee for Khalsa Ladies Camp as reasonable as possible. And the camp runs on a tight budget. Yet we understand that some might be prevented from participating due to a lack of financial resources. We would like to offer support in the form of partial scholarships / work trades for women who might not be able to attend otherwise. We are confident that you can come up with some amount towards the fee.

Each application for a Khalsa Ladies Camp Scholarship & Work Trade will be treated confidentially and considered with care and respect. We will make every effort to assist as many as possible who apply, especially through the work trade arrangement, and if applicants can honestly come up with some portion of the fee. There are a number of working positions available. The following guidelines are used in making decisions on applications:

Applications must be received by JULY 28th. You will be notified by August 1st of the result. (If you are not selected for a scholarship, the pre-registered fee will still be applicable for you.) We will not be able to consider late applications. While all applications will be considered, priority will be given to providing support to persons in the following situations:

- single moms with small children and limited income
- young adults whose families cannot help out
- women who would like to help out in various working situations, mostly in the hearth and food area.

APPLICATION

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ Prov/State: _____ Postal/Zip Code: _____

Phone: (h) _____ E-mail: _____

Amount of scholarship requested:

- I can come up with $_____ towards the fee, and need help with the rest.
- I can pay for my own camp, but would like to bring my daughter (____ years) and would like financial help to bring her.

If you do not receive this financial support, would the arrangement below help?

- I can come up with the money, but not right away. I can provide post-dated checks for the amount.
- No, I really would not be able to come without this financial support.

Please tell us something about your situation, why you need support, and why this camp is important for you at this time. (Financial statements not necessary.) What is your attitude towards serving the camp?
