What is with the Turbans?

Historically, Turbans have been part of many spiritual practices. There is a science and technology to wearing a turban:

- Serves to wrap the 26 bones of the skull in place
- Protects your crown chakra or tenth gate
- Applies pressure on points on the forehead that keep you calm and relaxed
- Cover the temples, which protects you from mental or psychic negativity of other people
- Changes the pattern of blood flow to the brain so that you stay

focused and clear

- You can wear a head covering to achieve some of the above effects but not all.
- Some wear turbans because they are Sikh. The turban of a Sikh is his or primary identifying feature. It is a statement of belonging to the Guru, and it is a statement of inner commitment.

What is Kundalini Yoga ?

Kundalini Yoga is an ancient technology of breath , movement , meditation and mantra. It is the yoga of awareness. Kundalini Yoga is suitable for people of all ages and abilities. Based in the chakra system, it heals the nervous system and glandular system and gives one an experience of their divine Self.

Each class includes:

- pranayam (breathwork)
- active kriyas (a set of exercises for a desired outcome)
- deep relaxation and meditation (often with mantra)
- Mantra is central to Kundalini Yoga. In each class we listen to sacred music and chant in the ancient language of Gurmukhi.

What is the connection between Sikh Dharma and Kundalini Yoga ?

The ancient knowledge of Kundalini Yoga merged with the more recently created Sikh Dharma about 500 years ago. This path of Kundalini Yoga, as taught by Yogi Bhajan, bows particularly to Guru Ram Das , the fourth of ten Gurus who helped create Sikh Dharma . Guru Ram Das held mastery of the realm of Raj Yoga. Kundalini Yoga is a Raj Yoga, which instills a consciousness of majesty, mastery, and service.

Like any good marriage, each reflects aspects of the other, while having a life of their own. Not all Sikhs practice Kundalini Yoga; and, of course, you don't have to be a Sikh to practice or teach Kundalini Yoga!

Can I bring children ?

See (Young Children and the KLC Experience)

We welcome female children above 7 years of age to attend, to be part of the Young Women's Program. However, we have no formal daycare facilities. If the child is under eighteen they must be accompanied by an adult. Please inform us in advance if you plan to bring a child. Please read the section Young Children and the KLC Experience on this website.

What are some Sikh Terms that I may hear at camp?

GURU In the Sikh tradition, this refers to the great Eternal Wisdom which reveals the connection of the soul to the Infinite. Though historically it referred to actual persons, in this Age, a Sikh does not refer to any person as a Guru, but rather acknowledges the Shabd Guru, the Divine Sound Current as Teacher, the Eternal Vibration, which breaks through illusion and connects us to our divine Self.

SIRI GURU GRANTH SAHIB This is on the altar on the Gurdwara. It reflects the Living Dynamic Word, the Shabd Guru. Its words create a vibratory frequency which uplifts us into our higher mind, and aligns us with our destiny. The space in which the Guru is installed is a sacred space, to be entered into consciously. We bow to the Siri Guru Granth Sahib, as the Living Word, not to any human.

KHALSA One who sees the purity in all. In the Sikh tradition it refers to one who has fully accepted all aspects of the Sikh lifestyle and is committed to living. We expand this, though to include any person on a spiritual path who is living their values. We believe that it is the prayers and consciousness of these people all over the world who are making a difference in the consciousness of the planet.

SONG OF THE KHALSA This song speaks of the strength and commitment necessary for living on this planet at this time. Though we are using the history and example of Sikhs, we sing this with the expanded concept of Khalsa in mind. Please join us.

WAHE GURU This is the mantra of ecstasy, expressing the realization of the Greatness of God and Guru.

WAHE GURU JI KA KHALSA, WAHE GURU JI KI FATEH! This means " My purity belongs to God and all victory goes to God!"

I am a healer , can I offer my services at camp ?

What is the Aquarian Age?

There have been many Ages and shift of Ages throughout the History of Humankind. The Aquarian Age is dawning and marks the transition into new ways of "being" within the evolution of humanity. The vibrational frequency of the planet has been steadily increasing and we are currently on the cusp leaving the Piscean Age behind and it has been predicted that we will be fully in the Aquarian Age by 2012. The Piscean Age was ruled by machines, hierarchies and ego. The New Aquarian Age will be ruled by awareness, intuition, wisdom (lived knowledge) and experience. The mind is changing its sensitivity, it's basic frequency and functioning. Our life is changing its sense of time, space, and reality. To help with these vast changes ahead we are fortunate to have the powerful technology of Kundalini Yoga at our disposal.

5 Sutras for the Aquarian Age

- 1. Recognize that the other person is you
- 2. There is a way through every block

3. When the time is on you, start, and the pressure will be off

4. Understand through compassion or you will misunderstand the times

5. Vibrate the Cosmos, the Cosmos shall clear the path
